All Proposed New Projects Must Include:

- An educational component for both public and Master Gardeners
- Sustainable project, in line with Extension educational mission
- Cooperation from partner organizations
- Suitable and willing project leaders
- Adequate volunteer staffing
- Public and Community Service

Phone numbers for project leaders may be found in the paper copy of the Garden Patch newsletter and the annual contact list that was printed in the June edition of the Garden Patch.

All new projects must be proposed to and accepted by USU Extension and the Master Gardener Association
